The image contains a map with various elements labeled and connected by lines. The map is titled "Figure A-12: Reed Union School District." The legend on the map includes symbols and descriptions for different types of information, such as attendance areas, schools, task force locations, safe routes, yellow buses, public transit, accidents involving youth pedestrian or bicycle victim, and crossing guards.

- Attendance Area: Dashed border indicates open enrollment or shared attendance area.
- School: Orange circle with letter or number.
- Task Force: Green circle with letter or number.
- Safe Routes: Yellow circle with letter or number.
- Yellow Bus: Green square.
- Public Transit: Blue square.
- Physical Barrier: Cross symbol.
- Accidents (2003-2012): Dashed line indicating location of accidents involving youth pedestrian or bicycle victim.
- Crossing Guard (2014): Orange square.
- Private/Charter School: Blue square.
- CMP Roadway: Gray line, as defined in the Marin County Congestion Management Program 2013 Update.

The map covers areas such as Bel Aire, Del Mar, and Reed Union School District, with streets and roads labeled, including Nave, Doctors, and Bridgeway. The map provides a visual representation of the school district's geographical layout and transportation infrastructure.
